

XM and other services like XM, are an invaluable new technology. And should not be regulated for content in any way. Should this ever be brought to a vote in my town, I would definately vote against any regulation of these types of services.